

Guide to Jewish life in KC

- Kosher eats and treats:
 - Hen House - 11721 Roe Ave in Leawood, KS (near HBHA)
 - Entirely kosher bakery with dairy and parve options: donuts, cookies, cupcakes, cakes (custom and ready made), pies, pastries, breads, bagels, and more.
 - Kosher deli counter - fresh sliced deli, fresh rotisserie chickens, fresh fried chicken tenders, fresh salads and sides (including kugels, soups, gefilte fish, and more).
 - Kosher cheese - largest selection of kosher cheeses in Kansas including bleu cheese, Munster, Parmesan, Gouda, and more - selection of cheese will vary.
 - Kosher dry goods - including some packaged chalav yisroel and pas yisroel items, frozen packaged foods (pizza, fish sticks, blintzes, chicken nuggets, etc.), and the largest Pesach selection in Kansas.
 - HyVee - 8501 W 95th St. (just outside the eruv)
 - Carry a modest kosher section including some dry goods and frozen items.
 - KC Kosher CoOp - order online, pickup at BIAV. Deliveries come every few months.
 - Carry a tremendous variety of meat, poultry, and fish along with packaged and frozen prepared foods and snacks.
 - Check out their offerings at kckoshercoop.com.
 - Trader Joe's - there are two locations, in Leawood, KS and Kansas City, MO, with a third opening in Merriam. The usual challah, baked goods, cheeses, yogurts, and milk available year round. Select chicken, ground meat, stew meat, small briskets, and turkey available at certain times.
 - Costco - 12221 Blue Valley Parkway
 - Kosher meat: fresh boneless, skinless chicken breast and ground turkey along with frozen ground beef, briskets, and occasionally other cuts of beef (like steak). They also stock salami and pastrami.
 - Kosher cheese: shredded cheese (mozzarella and Mexican blend) and cheese platters of sliced cheese.
 - Kosher fish: a variety of lox and white fish salad.
 - Kosher dry goods: Kedem grape juice year round and holiday selections (prepackaged hamentashen and Pesach items).

Rams Cafe is operated by volunteers, primarily HBHA parents and grandparents. It's open Monday through Friday during the school year and serves a variety of prepared foods and snacks, including sushi, when HBHA is in session. The cafe sometimes offers prepared foods from select caterers in the summer.

Snack bar at the J pool serves hot kosher items (burgers, hot dogs, fries, etc.) poolside on certain days when the pool is open for the summer season. Kosher dairy options are also available.

The Heritage Center at the J offers kosher meals and is open to the public. Be sure to preorder by 10:00 am that morning. Learn more at 913-327-8044 or visit thejkc.org.

MDL, located at 95th and Antioch, has a good sized selection of kosher wine. Other stores with kosher wine selections include Trader Joe's on Ward Parkway in Kansas City, MO and Harry's Liquor on Nall Ave.

Bagels:

- Meshuggah Bagels is a fully hechshered bagel shop with a variety of shmears. The two kosher locations are located at 1208 W 39th Street in Kansas City, MO and 7096 W 105th Street in Overland Park, KS.
- Hen House bakery on Nall Ave includes fresh bagels.

Ice cream: Ice cream can be found at Andy's Ice Cream (frozen custard is kosher, toppings aren't certified), Coldstone Creamery (entire shop is hechshered), Blue Chip Ice Cream and Cookies (update: unsure about the kosher status of anything beyond the ice cream).

Donuts: Krispy Kreme located at 10390 Metcalf Ave is fully hechshered.

Pizza: Chai Pies offers kosher, chalav yisrael pizza nights at Torah Learning Center, located on 103rd and Antioch. Dairy-free and gluten-free options are also available.

Caterers: There are several local caterers who provide kosher, Vaad-supervised food for events and parties. See vaadkc.org for more info.
